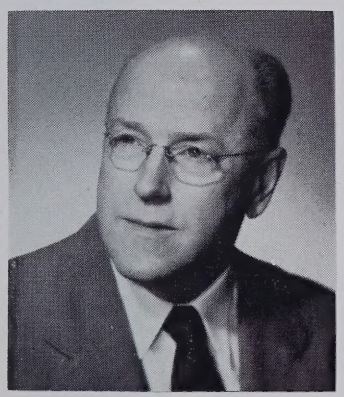
In Tribute

MISS HAZEL HEALY

Miss Hazel Healy will always be remembered for the diligence she displayed in her work. A mathematics and English teacher for the past forty-one years, she exhibited her versatility of interests in her supervision of the annual school spelling contest and her position as literary critic of the Yearbook. In addition, she acted as the sports editor of the school paper while it was still a bi-weekly. Her colleagues and students will always admire Miss Healy for her sincere interest in school affairs.



MR. WALTER CANDY

With the retirement of Mr. Walter Candy, mathematics teacher for forty-one years and chairman of the math department, Washington High School lost a dedicated instructor. Mr. Candy displayed a wide diversity of talents, serving as a counselor for the last fifteen years, and as a member of the National Honor Awards and Service Awards committees. Because of his interest in public speaking, he held the position of director of Philomathea for twenty-one years. Varied though his activities were, Mr. Candy maintained the consistent high standards for which he will long be remembered.

MISS PAULINE ROYT

After thirty-six years of teaching, Miss Pauline Royt has retired from the faculty of Washington High School. While her major field was algebra and geometry, she also taught biology earlier in her career. As a member of the counseling department until 1960, she devoted much of her time to helping students in all phases of school life. Washington High School is grateful to Miss Royt for her interest in student welfare and the many services she has rendered to the school.

MR. CLIFFORD JACQUITH

During his thirteen years of teaching biology at Washington High School, Mr. Clifford Jacquith earned for himself a particularly warm place in the hearts of his students and colleagues. Working as the director of Science Club, he devoted much of his time to its interests and activities, guiding many students to careers in science. One evidence of his unfailing devotion to the education of his pupils is the fact that he had a perfect record of attendance during his career. He will long be remembered as an industrious, loyal, and dedicated instructor of the highest caliber.

ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT

The coaches and the athletic director at Washington have established a winning tradition. Through their united efforts, they have produced many fine teams, but more important, have started many of their athletes on the road to success in later life.

Besides showing their teams the fundamentals, they have traditionally made the sport more important than the victory, and the sportsmanship more important than the sport.

In addition to the coaches and athletes, there is the athletic director with his staff, handling many duties that help to keep the athletic program running smoothly and efficiently.

"When the going gets tough, the tough get going." This has been the spirit passed on to the players — the spirit of determination that will continue to guide Washington's teams onward to victory in the future.

FOOTBALL

Coach Polczynski and his staff once again assembled an exciting football team that finished in the first division of the City Conference. After a mediocre start, the Purgolders developed greater strength and teamwork, winning three of their last four games.

CROSS COUNTRY

Placing second in the State Meet sums up the success that Coach Hecht's hill and dalers achieved in their cross country season. With the graduation of Bruce Fraser, who won both the City and State Meets, and three other fine lettermen, 1963 will be a rebuilding year.

BASKETBALL

The basketball team, consisting primarily of inexperienced seniors, started out badly. However, as the season progressed, the squad improved steadily. Facing tough northside opposition, the cagemen were, nevertheless able to finish with a highly commendable 10-6 record.

SWIMMING

Although Washington swimmers did not win the Little City Meet in 1963, as they did last year, the finmen placed a strong second in the Little City Meet besides having a good dual meet season, 10-3.

WRESTLING

The wrestling team was composed largely of inexperienced juniors. Coach Spicuzza attributed the team's weakness to the lack of experience throughout the squad. However, the team's spirit and attitude was encouraging.

TRACK

There was good team work in the 1962 squad, but there was a lack of individual work except for the top performances in the low hurdles by Bob Artel. At the beginning of the 1963 season, there were great potentialities to develop the cindermen into top contenders in the City Conference.

TENNIS

When asked about the 1962 tennis team, Coach Ruehl simply replied, "We won the championship. What else is there to say?" The team swung through the season with no losses. As the 1963 season opened, Coach Ruehl had little doubt with five returning lettermen.

GOLF

Fulfilling all predictions, last year's golf team under Coach Gettle captured a second in the City Meet and a third in dual meet standings. Because the 1963 team under Coach R. E. Miller has returning lettermen, the outlook seems bright.

BASEBALL

Because the 1961 team came up with the city championship for Coach Bilek, he felt disappointed in the 1962 team with its 13-9 record. With a good defense in the 1963 squad, the outcome depends largely upon batting and pitching.

GYMNASTICS

Gymnastics is a new sport developing in the Milwaukee high schools. Although Washington has no official team, the school was well represented by Bob Hennecke, who took top honors in the City and State Meets.

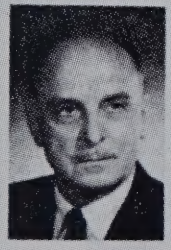
Greetings to New Pupils

To the Class of June 1963:

You are now members of a school that will tax to the limit your abilities and your willingness and your attitude toward bettering yourselves through education. A nation becoming peopled with those who expect The Government to do more and more for them is losing its initiative in the development of leadership. However, every group, no matter how large or small, needs a leader. You can become one through exercising discipline of mind and body and heart.



Sincerely yours,

M M Schardt

A NEW MISSION

To the Class of June 1963:

You have accomplished the mission assigned to you three years ago. As a class and as individuals you have developed and exercised the rare art of leadership. Your intellectual achievement has been exceptional. Three years ago I expressed a fear that people were forfeiting their initiative; that fear is today a reality — and a danger. You graduates: what you have learned of leadership in the world of school put into effect in the world of your living.

Sincerely yours,

M M Schardt

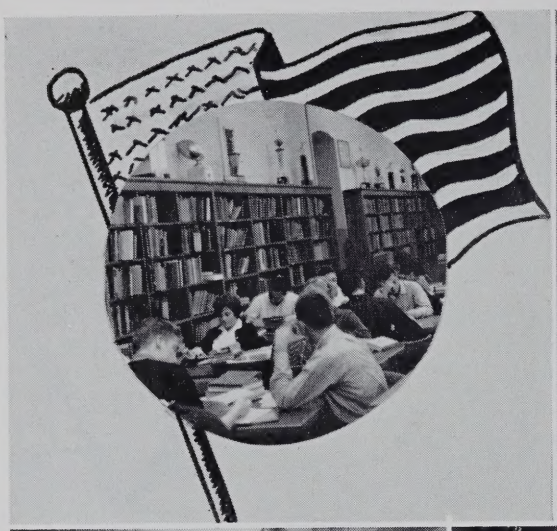
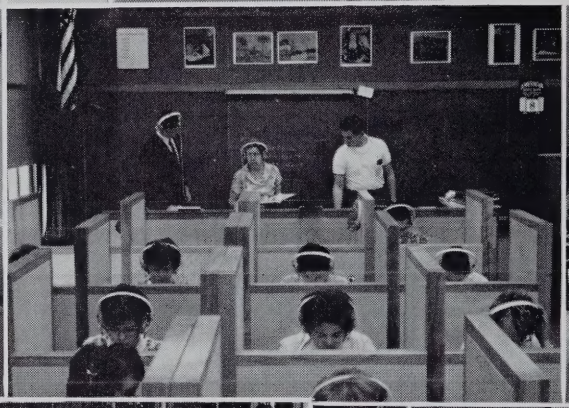
OUR SCHOOL



WASHINGTON'S CALENDAR — 1962-63

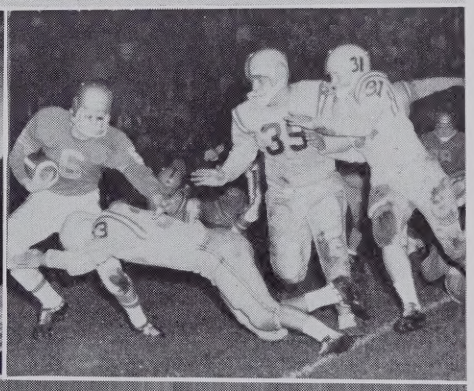
This is Washington High School with its 2700 students and 100 faculty members. It is a school that offers the best in education, extra-curricular activities, and life preparation. During the three years spent here, students become responsible citizens, advancing in maturity as well as wisdom. In the following pages, we will try to depict some of Washington's functions and activities as they occur, month by month, during the school year.

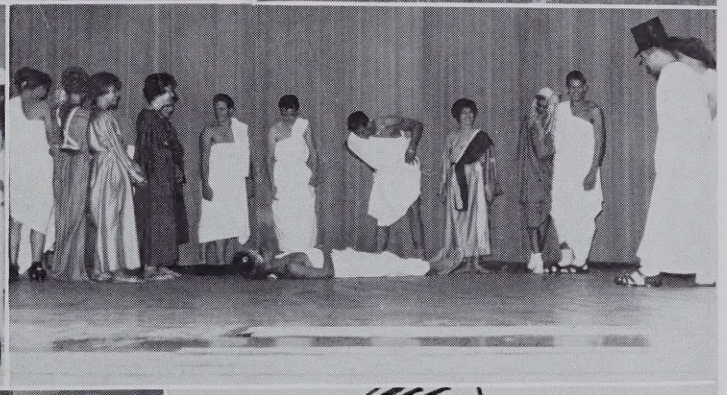


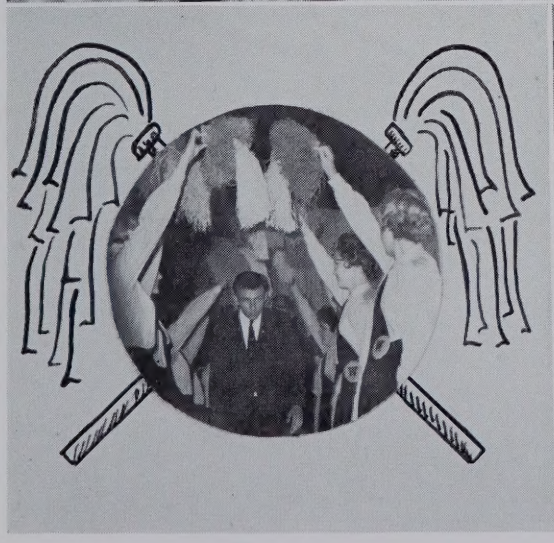
SEPTEMBER

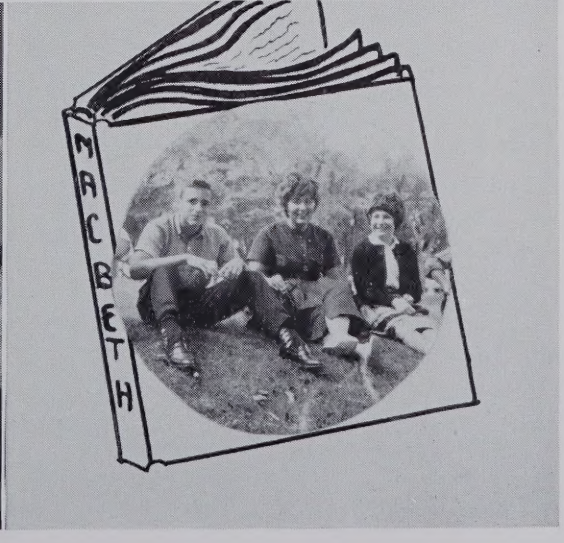
SUNNY SEPTEMBER DAYS

In September a new world is opened to the students of Washington High School. It is the time of buying new books and meeting teachers and friends. New pupils attend the annual activities day, while student leaders assume their respective offices. Pep rallies and football games are eagerly awaited, and the new cafeteria once more takes on a sign of busy life.





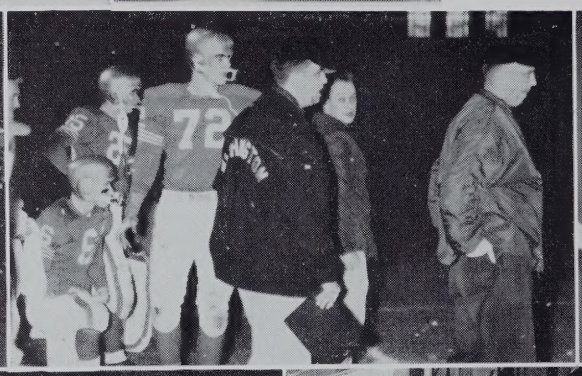




OCTOBER

OCTOBER ODYSSEY

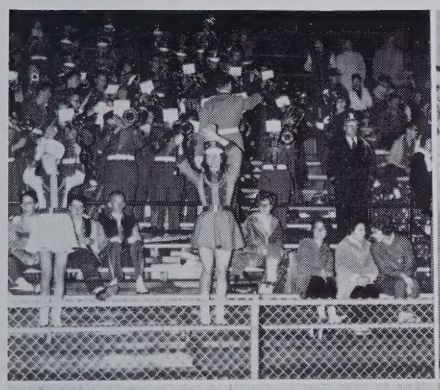
October is a busy month in the life of Washington High School. The Scroll Weekly is hard at work, covering all current events, while the majorettes and marching band perform at every football game. Pep rallies are scheduled weekly and the homecoming dance becomes the center of Washington's social life.

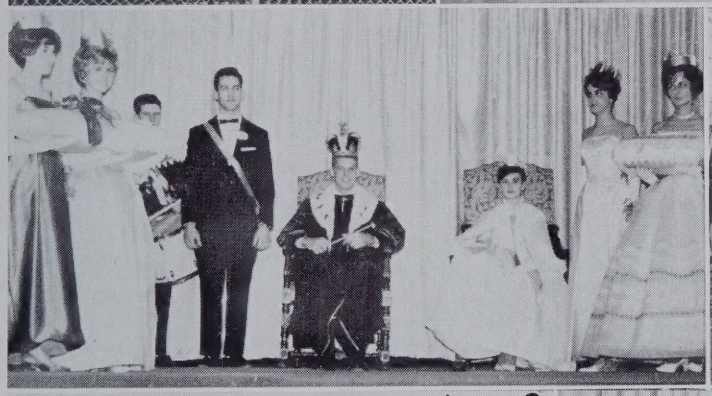


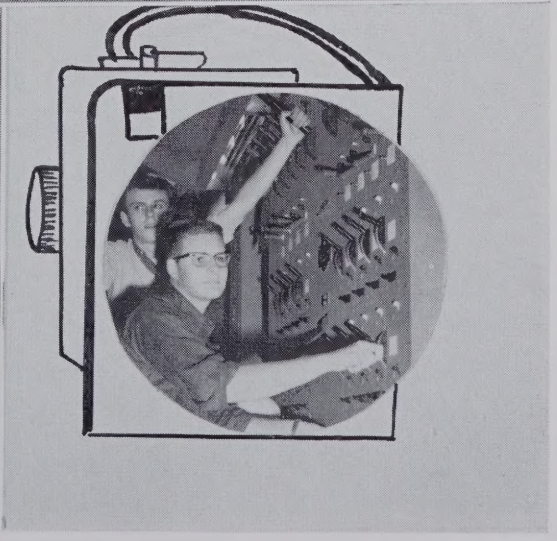
NOVEMBER

NOVEL NOVEMBER

In November, polished shoes slipping across the gym floor at the prom are contrasted with the determined paces of the drill team on the football fields. The concert band performs at many of the auditorium assemblies while the members of the stage crew handle the technical side of these programs. The marching band continues to show its form at the football games and the Student Council holds its annual Student-Faculty Tea.







DECEMBER

DECEMBER DRIFTS

Voices rule over the month of December. There is the happy talk of couples at the Holly Hop, the promising speeches at club elections, the rehearsed dialogues of the Fall Play, and the seasonal songs of the choir. Then, in contrast to these orderly presentations, there are the gratifying cheers of audiences at all the auditorium programs. December is a singing month, a talking month, a happy month.

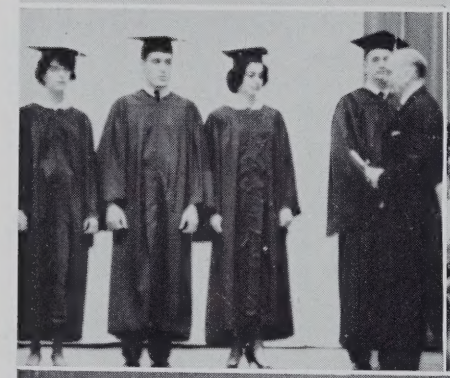
JANUARY

JANUARY GEMS

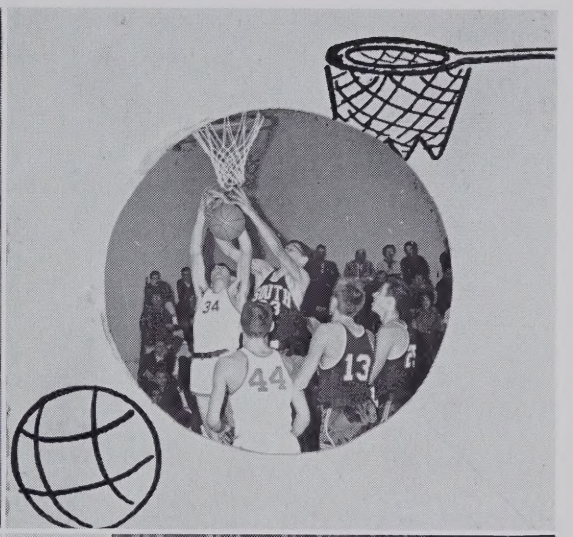
Graduation dominates the month of January. Our departing seniors attend their many and varied activities, such as the senior mixer which features the class skit. The traditional High Heel and Tie Day is held once more, and the Winter Concert presents music at its best. With Honor Days and Graduation, the auditorium is again the center of activity.

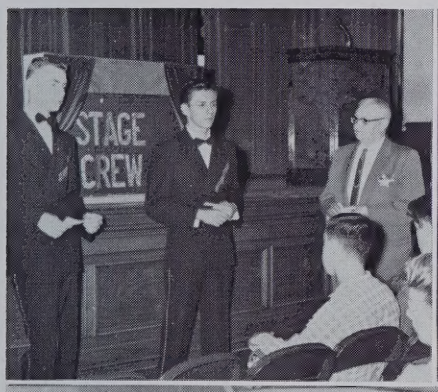


FEBRUARY

FEBRUARY FANTASY

February is a time of bidding farewell to the past semester and welcoming new activities. With the basketball season at a close, Tonians now devote their time and efforts to such events as Open House and New Student Activity Day. The semester three Student Council members assume their duties, while the corridor monitors prepare for a busy term of student service. The relaxing music of the Valentine Dance calls students to enjoy themselves after a long period of student activity.





MARCH

MARCH MAGIC

In March the Student Council, together with its advisors, plans and presents the Student Council-Faculty Tea. Other school organizations are also well represented during the month as shown by the Spanish Club Sombrero Day and the Girls' Club skit. Students, in addition, are given the opportunity to explore many diverse professions at the annual Careers Day, while our athletes receive their well-deserved awards on the stage.

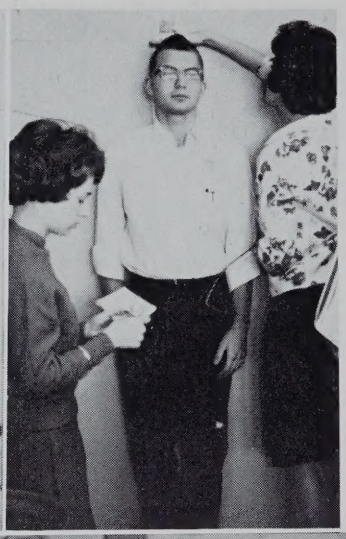
APRIL



APRIL ACCENTS

"Umbrellas Are For Flowers" and flowers certainly play a big part at the Springtime Dance and the F.T.A. Flower Sale. As spring arrives, life at Washington takes a less serious turn as the student body elects new cheerleaders and Tonians engage in the friendly competition of the annual Spelling Contest. However, its students are again reminded of the more important aspects of school life when they view the prom formals at the Girls' Club style show and, as seniors, are measured for caps and gowns.

MAY

MAY AND JUNE MEMORIES

The Senior Prom is one of the highlights of May, followed closely by the Music Department's "Serenade to Spring". Chemistry experiments are tackled with new vigor and the candy store monitors find that ice cream sales increase as warm weather sets in. June arrives and class meetings take on new meaning as graduation day approaches. For the underclassmen another year at Washington is ending, for the class of June, 1963, it will be farewell forever.

a girl who'd have known just a few years and I can write a book on her.

Francine, do you remember the time when I met you and I couldn't talk English. The time we ate lunch together in mrs. Rice class; and espically the times when we were at the pajama partys from B.B.G.. when we tried to play tennis

Francine, we have known each other in Steuben and now in Washington and we sometimes walk to school together.

Espically when the three (stooges) Dora, Francine, Robin went to the beach and the show. (Especially at the show)

Hope to see you in the summer.
